Poetry.

A Dirge for Greeley.

[AFTER BOKER.]

Close the polls, his work is done!
What to him is friend or foeman,
Rise of Wheat or fall of Corn,
Woodhull's tone or other woman?
Lay him low, let him blow,
Of his turnips white as snow!
What cares he? He does not know
How the ruta bagas grow!

Old sorehead vainly thought he might
Reach the White House by his endeavor;
Let him soon forget the fight,
And keep upon his farm forever.
Let him go, let him blow,
In his clover white as snow!
What cares he? He wants to know
How the German pretzels grow!

Fold him in the "stars and bars,"
Roll the drum and fire the volley!
What to him are all our wars,
What, but a gigantic folly?
Let him go, let him blow,
'Midst his hats—one white as snow:
What cares he? Except to know
How long-handled broom corns grow!

Leave him to Jeff's friendly eye,
Trust him to the hands that have him.
Breckenridge weeps idly by:
Baltimore could never save him,
Let him go, let him blow,
At his farm house white as snow!
What cares he? He wants to know
Where the blind potatoes grow!

Discussion at Hertford.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

It was my good fortune to hear the discussion at Hertford on 15th inst., between Jesse J. Yates Esq. Conservative Candidate for Senate, and Willis Bagley Esq. who represented Capt. Grandy on the occasion.

Major Yates opened the discussion in a speech of over one hour and a half, and made a good stump speech for his party. The whole drift of his argument was to show that President Grant had a strong will of his own, and was disposed to to assume royal powers: that a great many frauds had been exposed since his accession to power, and that one or two office holders had made presents to some other office holders. He eulogized Horace Greeley for signing Mr. Davis's bail bond, thought he was very well inclined towards the South, and though not his choice, nor the choice of the Democratic Party was however a very good candidate.

The Major then branched off on State politics, denounced the Legislature of 1869 "elocuted considerably" on Littlefield & Co. He had some kind words for his colored friends—told them they owed their liberty to the decree of God, and the determination of the Confederate soldiers, and thought they ought to vote for him.

After a few "oratorical flights" an anecdote or two, the Major took his seat amid the applause of his friends.

Mr Bagley then arose and proceeded to answer the speech just delivered. He showed that the Republican Party had restored peace and order to the country, that its whole purpose had been to elevate morally and politically the whole people of the country, and that under its guidance our prosperity in the future would be fully equal to the most ardent expectations of every true lover of good government. He then answered in detail all the propositions of fraud and corruption which had been advauced by Major Yeates, and showed that whilst individual Republicans might have been guilty, Democratic leaders were inculpated, that the Republican party had denounced its corrupt members, whilst Democrats, some to whom grave suspicion attached, had been nominated for high position.

It would require too much of your space to give an extended notice of the comprehensive, able, and eloquent effort of Mr. Bagley. Sufflce it to say his able opponent failed to answer argument, and resorted to anecdotes in which he is proficient.

The entire discussion was characterized by courtesy, and good feeling, and our opponents may congratulate themselves at least on the fact, that in Major Yeates they have a candidate who whilst ably discussing the issues of the campaign, never descends to the personal abuse which has heretofore been the strong points of their pet orators.

REPUBLICAN.

Miscellaneous.

Henry Ward Beecher's Position.

As for ourselves, we stand by our colors—Grant and Wilson, and the old Republican party, which has been bred and proved in stormy days, when the whole nation leaned upon it and found it a sure support. It went through the fire and the flood to save our country. We do not believe that the common people of America are ready to throw away an old servant, and put in its place a party whose whole strength lies in the adheson to it of the very men whom the Republican party has fought before, at Shiloh, at Vicksburgh, at Gettysburg and around Richmond. They tried to take Washington several times before. They could not do it by bullets, and we do not intend that they shall by ballots. This country is not prepared to pass the Government into the hands of that party which has for fifteen years done nothing but fight these laws and that policy which they hope soon to coustrue and administer. It is not even pretended that the rank and file of the Democratic party have been converted to those ideas for which the whole war was waged. They have changed their policy, but not their convictions. They will go to Washington as Liberal Republicans, but once there they will throw off the odious name, and stand forth out-and-out Democrats. The old questions are not settled. It is not likely that any party will attempt to overthrow the Constitutional amendments. But a law may be made nugatory without abolishing it. The spirit of an administration may neutralize a Constitutional provision without attacking its letter.—Christian Union.

Liberals Abandoning Greeley.

Mr. Read, who has been known as the only Greeley Republican in the Connecticut Legislature, and who is the President of the Greeley Club in Danbury, now says he will not vote for him, since he has become the Democratic candidate. Senator Perkins, of Connecticut, who was claimed by a New Haven Democratic paper as wavering toward Greeley, declares that he has no thought of voting for the man with "a Democratic hook in his nose."

Pills for the Democrats, (Not Sugar Coated)—Dr. Greeley on the Democracy Prior to "Cincinnatti."

"To smoke is a Democratic virtue; to chew is that virtue intensified; to drink rum is that virtue in the superlative."

Wishing to show the social status of the Democracy he wrote as follow:

"This would amount to six in a bed, exclusive of any other vermin, for every Democratic couch in the States of New York, including those of Sing Sing and Auburn."

Hear the Dr. on interfering with the question of social equality and mixed schools:

"If Democracy has concocted or borrowed an 'interference theory' which justifies such meddling, it is a worse theory than even we had supposed. All do know that there are several hundred thousand mulattoes in this country, and we presume no one has any serious doubt that the fathers of at least nine tenths of them are white Democrats. And we hold that those Democrats, if they will have yellow children, might better than otherwise treat the mothers respectively as wives, after the laudable pattern of that eminent Democratic Vice President Richard M. Johnson."

Greeley draws a comparison between the average intelligence of Democrats and Republicans. The epitome of Democatic creed "Love rum and hate niggers" we commend to the special consideration of Greeley's camp followers:

"If there were not a newspaper nor a common school in the country, the Democratic party would be far stronger than it is. Neither elementary instruction nor knowledge of transpiring events is necessary to teach the essential articles of the Democratic creed: "Love rum and hate niggers."

"The less one learns and knows, the more certain he is to 'vote the regular ticket from A to Izard.'

"But Repnblicanism rests on a radically different basis, and is sustained by wholly diverse considerations. It lives by intelligence; it dies in the murky, stifling atmosphere of ignorance. Canvas almost any township in the land, and distinguish those who take from those who fail to take a newspaper, and you will find that two-thirds of those who take vote Republican, while three-fourths of those who read nothing but a chance newspaper picked up, for a few moments in a barroom vote the Democratic ticket and will not be persuaded to touch any other."

Greeley wishes to draw the line of demarcation between Democrats and Republicans so clearly that no one need make mistakes. So he takes his pen and with benevolent smiles playing across the philosophic features, pens the following:

"1. What proportion of the voters at the Five Points and kindred districts of our city have usually sympathized and voted with the Republican and with the democratic parties respectively?

"2. What proportion of those voters is likely to vote for Black enfranchisement, North or South?

"3. How will it compare with the vote of the intelligent, moral, industrious farmers of this State, or of New England, on the same question?

"How do the blacklegs, pugilists, keepers of dens of ill-fame, criminals, and those who are popularly designated "rough," stand on this issue? How would the World like to have the question of Impartial Suffrage decided by the votes of the members in good standing of all the churches and synagogues in the country? Would it not feel more confident of such a verdict as it desires, if these were not to vote at all, while the dog-fanciers, cock-fighters, shoulder-hitters, gamblers and rowdies were polled to decide the great issue?

"We shall see whether the World dares give candid response to our inquiries. It often talks sneeringly of Republican morality, sobriety, decency, &c., &c., as though they were preposterous, Pharisaic assumtions. Now, let us see what is its own estimate of the relative moral worth of the two great parties."

Wishing to draw a pleasant comparison, the philosopher remaked, en passent.

"The World recently gave a graphic account of the dens and denizens which give character to the Five Points and other 'slum' of our city—a class perhaps lower in the scale of beings than can be found in any heathen city on earth. We thereupon asked our contemporary to state frankly whether the pugilists, blacklegs thieves, burglars, keepers of dens of prostitution, etc., etc., who make up so large a share of our city's inhabitants, were not almost unanimously Democrats?"

We reproduce the following to give the Democracy every opportunity to understand the views of the illustrious Dr. Greeley:

"For the last thirty years every American slave-holder on the African coast has accounted himself in politics a Democrat. So every one who chooses to live by pugilism, or gambling, or harlotry, with nearly every keeper of a tippling-house, is politically a Democrat. He believes laissez faire—that 'the world is governed too much,'—that 'the best government is that which governs least.' He wants his trade to move without restriction. He joyfully subscribes to the World and echoes its cry, 'Let the people eat, drink, and amuse themselves as they see fit, so long as they do not infringe on the same liberty in others. A purely selfish interest attaches the lewd, ruffianly criminal and dangerous classes to the Democratic party by the instinct of self preservation, the preservation of their right to make gain of others' degradation."

Speaking of the "bayonet act," Greeley said:

"Point wherever you please to an election district which you will pronounce morally rotten—given up in great part to debauchery and vice—whose voters subsist mainly by keeping policy-offices, gambling-houses, grog-shops, and dark dens of infamy—and that district will be found giving a large majority for that which styles itself the Democratic party. * * * * What is the instinct, the sympathetic chord which attaches them so uniformly to that party."

Whenever he hears that visitors are on their way up the road from New York to see him at his farm at Chappaqua, Horace Greeley immediately rises out of his easy chair in his parlor, rolls up his sleeves, pokes his trousers inside of his boot-legs, puts on an old hat, shoulders an axe, rushes to a maple grove near by, and vigorously sets himself to work chopping down trees—the object being to have it noised abroad, as an electioneering card, that he is hard at work as a farmer and wood-chopper. Old Chappaqua—old Chappaquack—old Chopperquacker.

Proverbs.

Amos Atkins was very fond of proverbs. He read proverbs, wrote proverbs and spoke proverbs; and meet him when you would, he had always a proverb on his lips. When he once began to speak, there was hardly any stopping him.

When I first met Amos, I was on my way to my uncle's. A long walk it was; but I told him that I hoped to be there before night.

"Ay, ay," said he. "Hope is a good breakfast, but a bad supper. Put your best foot foremost, boy, or else you will not be there. It is a good thing to hope; but he who does nothing but hope is in a very hopeless way.

"Have a care of your temper; for a passionate boy rides a pony that runs away with him. Passion has done more mischief in the world than all the poisonous plant that grow in it. Therefore, again I say, have a care of your temper.

"Remember that the first spark burns down the house. Quench the first spark of passion, and all will be well. No good comes of wrath; it puts no money in the pocket, and no joy in the heart. Anger begins with folly, and ends repentance."

"Look to your feet and your fingers, boy, and let both be kept in activity; for he who does nothing is in a fair way to do mischief. An idle lad makes a needy man, and, I may add, a miserable one too.

"If you put a hot coal in your pocket, it will burn its way out. Ay; and so will a bad deed that is hidden make itself known. A fault concealed is a fault doubled; and so doubled; and so you will find it all through life. Never hide your faults, but confess them, and seek, through God's help, to overcome them.

"Waste not a moment of your time; for a moment of time is a monument of mercy.

"Now, step forward, boy; and as you walk along, think of the half-dozen proverbs given you by Amos Atkins."—Child's Companion.

True Greatness.

Mere desision of character, taken in a worldly sense, is insufficient to produce true greatness of character. What is further needed is a clear, commanding view of duty as one and unalterable, to be the pole-star in the heavens. It if, therefore, hard to overrate the importance of cultivating this distinct and unclouded apprehension of right and wrong as a permanent mental habit. In order to attain this, we must be often thinking of moral questions, and settling principles before the hour of trial. In this, likewise, men widely differ. Happy is the youth that begins early to meditate on such subjects, and to clear his notions as to what he ought to do in given emergencies. He will find the bracing influence of such views in moments when all are shaking around him. Looking only at principles of eternal right, he will go serenely forward, even in the face of adverse popular opinion. While weaker minds are halting to collect the votes of the masses, he will bare his bosom to the shower of darts, and march up to the requisitions of conscience, in spite of the instant tyrant, or, what is often more formidable, of the turturbulent populace.—Rev. Dr. J. W. Alexadder.

H. G. Encouraging What He Calls the "Franking Swindle."

There was a time when the New York Tribune objected vehemently to abuses of the franking privilege, but that journal has very little to say on the subject now, the reason of which is, doubtless, that Mr. ORMMLY'S Committee at the Astor House recently persuaded Congressman ROOSEVELT to frank a large number of campaign documents, comprising the proceedings of the Cincinnati Convention, a supplement of Tilton's Golden Age, and an advertisement of Greeley and Brown hat and caps at $15 a set. Five thousand packages of this stuff, with Roosvelt's frank upon each, were stopped at the New York Post-Office one day last week, & sent back to the Committee-room in the Astor House to be properly stamped. A few of them had been sent off before the fraud had been discovered. That Mr. GREELY could have been ignorant that this attempt to cheat the Government was about to be made by his friends is impossible. He spends a portion of every day in the Committee-room, and is of course thoroughly posted concerning the work there done in his behalf. What has become of his zeal for reform in the administration of the Post-office Department?

Furious hurricanes have swept the eastern coast of Madagascar of late, causing a great deal of destruction. In some cases whole towns have been leveled to the ground. Ships were driven on shore, churches destroyed and strong trees, even so tenacious as the cocoa-nut palm, actually torn up by the roots. The violent perturbations of nature which have taken form in tremenduous freshets in India, Italy, and elsewhere, in typhoons in the China seas, and in heavy gales in the usually Pacific, are thus having correspondent outbreaks in the Southern Hemisphere, and we should not be surprised to hear of similar phenomena in the Australian Archipelago and in South America. It may not be possible, as yet, to connect these manifestations by any certain physical laws but the number of cases in which they rapidly succeed each other, implies a connection which science may be expected one day to determine.

Can any one tell.

Can any one tell why men cannot pay small bills, can always find money to buy liquor, and treat when happening among their friends?

Can any one tell how young men who dodge their washerwoman, and are always behind with their landlords, can play billiards night and day, and are always ready at a game of cards?

Can any one tell how men live and support their families who have no income and do not work, while others who are industrious and constantly employed are half-starved?

Can any one tell how it is that nine-tenths of the mothers are so ready to sew for the distant heathen, when their children at home are ragged and dirty?

Can any one tell why four-fifths of the young women prefer a brainless fop under a plug hat, with tight pants and a short tailed coat, to a man with some brains?

Judge Merrimon didn't speak at Columbus in Polk county. Cause thepeople didn't want to hear him and stayed at home. Great enthusiasm in Polk, but not for Merrimon.

Judge Merrimon and the Homestead.

The Democratic candidate for Governor, Judge Merrimon, from the first, both as a private citizen and professionally, has opposed the Homestead. He has used every endeavor, in every walk of life, to defeat this wise and beneficent provison of the Constitution. The Judges of the Supreme Court, a majority of them, have sustained the Homestead, even in its retrospective action.

The Supreme Court is composed of five members. It is constantly liable to changes. Some of them have already taken place, and if rumor is to be credited, another one of the Judges will soon resign, leaving a vacancy to be filled by the Governor. One of the judges is more than seventy years of age; another is nearly seventy. These are likely to die or become disabled by old age. Should vacancies occur, the Governor will appoint the the new judges. It is important to those who desire to retain their Homesteads, that the man who can appoint the judges should believe in the Homestead provision of the Constitution, as construed by present Supreme Court. They know where Governor Caldwell stands and can rely on him. They know also where Judge Merrimon stands, and what he would do if he had a chance. If elected Governor, he wouuld, in case of vacancies in the Supreme Court, appoint judges hostile to the Homestead. The result would be Democratic lawyers would make up cases for the new Democratic judges to decide, and the decision of the Supreme Court, sustaining the Homestead, even as as against old debts, would be overturned. Many Democrats have taken advantage of the Homestead, while condemning the Constitution and the court that secured it to them. If they cannot be reached in any other way, perhaps they may be impelled by self interest to vote for the man who is beyond doubt in favor of the Homestead. We ask them if there is any nonsense in what we say.

In 1868 Judge Merrimon attempted to defeat our State Constitution by asserting that the white and colored men would be forced to muster in the same militia companies. Governor Caldwell and his friends denied this. The Constitution was adopted. Have white and colored men been forced to muster together? Who told you the truth and who did not?

In 1868 Judge Merrimon and his friends asserted that if the present State Constitution was adopted the white children and the colored children would be forced to attend the same schools. Governor Caldwell and friends denied this. The Constitution was adopted. Who told the truth?

Let the people of North Carolina remember that A. S. Merrimon, Democratic candidate for Governor, tried to raise money to test the constitutionality of the Homestead clause in our Constitution, in the Supreme Court of the United States.

Thousands of our people were ruined by the war inaugurated by the Democratic party, and yet when the Republican party offered the people of the State a Constitution which provided a Homestead thus enabling our people to save a home from the general wreck, Judge Merrimon and his friends labored hard to prevent even a home being saved. Is he a poor man's friend? It is our opinion that he now believes the Homestead unconstitutional, null, and void. Can we trust him?

Salting his tail.

"The real hinge of the Presidential election," so says the World, "is the possibility of convincing the Anti-Greeley Democrats that he is a better candidate than Grant." A prudent saying. No doubt one of the toughest jobs upon the Greeley manager is the whipping or coaxing of the Anti-Greeley Democrats into their heterogeneous fold. For the Tammany Democrats are already convinced that they and their office-seeking, spoils-devouring, faction could not have a better President than Horace Greeley; whom, should he be elected, they will take to themselves body and soul, leaving only his, coat, and boots to the "Liberal Reform" Party.

Such being the bird that is to be caught, it is amusing to see the World creep up on tiptoe with a handful of fresh salt to fling upon its tail. Indeed, the salt is so very fresh that it seems more like sugar. "Nothing could be more ill-judged and suicidal," it says, "than pouring out vials of wrathful abuse upon the Anti-Greeley Democrats." It wants to keep the other boys—imprudent, out-speaking fellows, who go about blurting out the truth

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA.

This is the last issue of our paper that can reach the most of you before the election. We desire earnestly and soberly, to present a few points for your calm and earnest consideration.

It has been a common custom among the people of many of the Northern States when they have succeeded in getting an able and faithful Representative in Congress to renominate, reelect and keep him there for at least three or more successive terms. They have found it an advantage to do so—that such a man, because of his experience and increasing influence, can do more for them, more for their District and more for the State than it is possible for a new man to accomplish. And it has been because of their keeping such men in the national councils that they have been able to wield such a controlling influence in regulating the legislation of the country and shaping the policy of the Government.

The Republicans of the First District of North Carolina believing this course to be one of great wisdom, have for the third time, renominated their present Member, Hon. CLINTON L. COBB, and, among other reasons, they present the following why they think he should be triumphantly re-elected:

1. He is a native North Carolinian—was born and reared in the District and has always lived in it. His interests and sympathies are identical and in unison with those of our people. He is familiar with their condition, is acquainted with their wants and thoroughly understands their necessities.

2. As a politician he has always been consistent. He has never been a demagogue, has never been a political acrobat, has never trimmed his sails to catch the popular breeze, but from the day he entered public life his course has been open, straightforward and in harmony with his convictions of right and duty. From the organization of the party in North Carolina he has been a Republican, earnest in his support of its principles, unswerving in his advocacy of its policy and devoted in his attachment to the grand ideas it has engrafted in the constitution of the Republic. He has proven to his friends, to his constituents, and to the country THAT HE CAN BE TRUSTED.

3. As a Representative of the District he has not only zealously guarded its interests, but he has succeeded in obtaining important National aid, in the shape of appropriations, to make improvements and develope resources that deeply interested the people. Still further Governmental aid is needed to effect other important improvements in different parts of the District. To obtain these Mr. Cobb is earnestly enlisted. Remember that a member in political accord with the Administration can accomplish more than one who is not.

4. He earnestly and successfully advocated the policy of paying all loyal Southern claimants for losses sustained during the late war.

5. He has ever had the moral courage to advocate that which he has believed to be right, regardless of popular clamor or partisan abuse. During the dark hours, at a time when ostracism was the penalty, he gallantly and heroically unfurled the Republican banner, and in Congress when the cries of the weak and defenceless went up to him from his native State pleading as never the oppressed and outraged plead before for protection from the scourgings and assassinations of the organization whose history is one of blood, he alone, of all the delegation representing our loved State in the lower branch of Congress, boldly stepped forward and introduced and advocated to a successful passage a bill that brought protection and relief.

6. His aspirations are all for Freedom, and his sympathies are ever stretched out to take in the people of every country struggling for liberty and Republican enfranchisement. His great speech in Congress in favor of Cuban Independence is a striking illustration of this. That speech gave him a national reputation; it was largely quoted and favorably commented on by nearly all the leading journals of the country.

7. He is never idle—is always at work. Because of his consistency, ability and industry he has not only won the respect and confidence of the leading Members of both Houses of Congress, but of the Heads of all the Departments of the Government as well, and because of his fidelity and reliability he stands as high in the esteem and confidence of the Administration as any public man in the National Capital.

For these reasons we confidently ask every voter in the First Congressional District to cast his ballot for Mr. COBB, for we are abundantly satisfied that every interest of all the people will be best served and most certainly advanced by his re-election.

As for his competitor, Col. CARTER, what shall be said. What of his political record? Has he been consistent? Has he been reliable? Let a few facts answer. At the breaking out of the war he was a Unionist; then he was a Secessionist; then he took a position to "embarrass the Confederacy." At the close of the War he began as a Republican. He started fair; joined and organized "Union Leagues," and worked in the party harness very well. But he had aspirations for position—an itching ambition for office. Failing in this, he "fell from grace," became a backslider and went over to the enemy. He has his reward in the nomination for Congress. But can the people confide in him? Do they feel that they can trust him? Do they not know that he has neither sympathy nor interest in common with the masses, and is it not notorious that he is decidedly opposed to the Homestead?

Voters of the First Congressional District! Can you support such a man, one whose political record won't bear examination—a man who has been on all sides of all questions during and since the war

"——every thing by turns
And nothing long?

Can you do it? Surely not. Then cast your ballots for the rising young Statesman of Eastern Carolina Hon. CLINTON L. COBB, a man who by his industry, his integrity, and his devotion to principle has made a name and fame reflecting credit on his District and honor to the State.

AN EARNEST WORD TO HONEST MEN.

That the election is an important one all admit. That it will exert an influence upon the future position and material prosperity of the State we firmly believe. If the Democrats shall succeed in carrying their State ticket and in securing a majority in the Legislature we may not only expect continued opposition to the General Government, but strife and bad feeling will predominate and for two years more North Carolina will struggle upon the turbulent waves of uncertainty and disaster. There is nothing more sure than that without perfect accord with the National Government there can be no peace and no true and lasting prosperity. As the National Government is controlled and will be controlled by the Republicans, the only sure, the only safe course for the people of North Carolina is to place themselves and the State in harmony and accord with that party. It is the only way to secure for us the progress and prosperity we so much need.

Think of it! North Carolina ought to have made ten times the progress during the past three years she has done. The narrow-minded policy of the Democratic party and its antagonism toward the Government has clogged the wheels of thrift, has retarded immigration, has discouraged the investment of capital and hence has prevented development and the building up of our waste places.

People of North Carolina! you that desire advancement and progress, will you vote to continue this policy, or will you do your utmost and best to help the State and help yourselves by voting for a policy and party that will promote the true interests of both? This is the question. It is one vital to you. Then do not commit the fatal blunder of assisting into power the party which is opposed to progress—a party that accepts nothing—a party that would now overturn the Government if they could. But if you want peace and advancement in all that make a people prosperous and happy vote the Republican ticket.

HOW TO INSURE IMMIGRATION AND CAPITAL.

We sometimes hear Democrats assert that they want to see Northern immigration pour into this State and that they earnestly desire the investment of Northern capital among us to aid in developing and buiding up. We tell them that the only way to secure this is to vote the Democracy out of power. All over the North a Democratic majority in the South is accepted as a declaration that in the district of country represented by that majority, neither immigrants nor capital will be safe.

However much we may deplore it, however much Democrats may attempt to deny that it is true, we know that a Democratic vote is regarded in the Northern States as a protest against immigrants and capital from the North, while on the other hand, a Republican vote and a Republican majority are accepted as pledges of security to person, property, and business.

Then, all who really desire immigration and capital, to insure their coming should vote the Republican ticket. Give us a Republican Legislature and Administration and both will rapidly pour into our State and give all our material interests the impetus and aid they so much need.

The Democracy claim to be the special friends of Confederate soldiers, yet they nominate for Governor A. S. Merrimon, who prosecuted to the bitter end forty wives of Confederate soldiers for taking tithe corn to keep themselves and children from starving.

COL. CARTER AND THE LEAGUE.

We never intentionally misrepresent a man, nor do him any injustice. But a public man's record is public property, and when he comes before the people for office he must expect to have that record examined and referred to. Col. DAVID M. CARTER is a candidate for Congress. In a casual reference to his erratic course as a politician we stated that he had been a member and organizer of Union Leagues. He has authorized a correspondent, through his organ here, to pronounce the charge "a lie." We publish the following sworn affidavits and leave the question of veracity to be settled between the parties. Is the Colonel's memory treacherous, or has his conscience assumed the property of the gum which merchants bring from far-off India? We don't pretend to say. But here are the affidavits:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, }

WHO GOT THE MONEY?

That a part of the legislation of 1869 was reckless, and that unwise appropriations were made all parties admit; but the record shows that Democratic members of that body were equally responsible and guilty. Had the Democrats united with those Republicans opposing the obnoxious measures not one of them would have passed.

The record shows too that in every instance Democrats pocketed the most of the stolen money—that they profited more by the frauds and swindles. For instance R. H. COWAN, a Democrat, got two Million Dollars; W. J HAWKINS, a democrat, got Three Million Two Hundred Thousand Dollars; A. J. MALLET, a democrat, got Five Hundred Thousand Dollars; J. R. STUBBS, a democrat, got Four Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars: W. A. BELO, a democrat, got One Million Four Hundred and Forty Thousand Dllars and G. W. SWEPSON, a democrat, got Six Million Six Hundred and sixty six Thousand Dollars. Is comment needed?

HORACE GREELY IN FAVOR OF MIXED SCHOOLS AND CHURCHES.

The Democratic candidate for President, HORACE GREELEY, is in favor of mixed schools and Churches. In a speech he made to the colord people at Poughkepsie on the 16th, day of May 1872, not three months ago, he said,

"I hope the time will come when our educational institutions and seminaries will be open to men of all races with a freedom, with a hospitality which has never yet been enjoyed. I trust the time will come when no man's color will exclude him from any church or any religious organization whatever. So they say, with regard to our common schools, where a small district contains by 25 or 30 families, it is simply impossible, where two or three of these are colored, to have separate schools; and in these cases, to say that black children shall not go to school with white children is to say that they shall not have any school whatever."

THREE QUESTIONS.

Did not Judge MERRIMON consent to make this canvass for Governor with the promise that, in the event of there being a Democratic legislature, he was to be elected to the United States Senate?

Is it not true that since the removal of Gov. VANCE's disabilities Judge MERRIMON has become despondent, feeling that his chances for the Senate are going—glimmering—gone?

And is it not a fact that for the past two weeks Judge MERRIMON has really entertained no hope of election, and on several occasions intimated to several of his confidential friends that he would be glad to abandon the contest?

THE DIFFERENCE.

The corrupt Republicans of the Legislature of 1868 and 1869—where are they? The party has retired them to private life.

How about the corrupt Democrats? They have all been rewarded by their party by promotion and renominations.

The difference between the two parties is—the Republicans drop and punish their corrupt members, while the Democrats reward and push forward their bribe-takers.

A QUESTION,

Who deserves the thanks of the people of North Carolina, CALDWELL who arrested SWEPSON for embezzling the people's money, or MERRIMON and SHIPP who got him off?

Mr. GREELEY's organ the Tribune, makes pathetic appeals to the South for support in this, his hour of need, and these are a few of the arguments adduced why this section should support Mr. Greeley for the Presidency. He has been particularly kind and generous towards the South, and so has his organ, the Tribune. Read the following evidences of this fact:

"When the rebellious traitors are overwhelmed in the field, and scattered like leaves before an angry wind, it must not be to return to peaceful and contented homes. They must find poverty at their firesides, and see privation in the anxious eyes of mothers and the rags of children."
—New York Tribune, May 1st, 1861.

THE PUBLIC PTINTING.

The Democratic editors and stump speakers try to mislead the people by saying that the printing cost under Republican rule $56,185, 45, while it only cost $34,262,01 under Democratic. But in this they have not included the printing of the laws which should have been ready in April, nor the House and Senate Journals which should have been ready long ago. When the bills for these are included, as they will be, the Democratic charges for printing will double up and largely exceed the amount charged by the Republicans. The laws the journals and the bills were purposely kept back until after the election.

The Republican party of North Carolina gave every citizen the right to vote for every officer in the State; gave every citizen a homestead and personal property exemption; gave every laborer and mechanic a lien that they could secure their wages; abolished imprisonment for debt and the barbarous whipping-post; and did numerous other things for the welfare of the masses of the people.

Judge MERRIMAN's papers deny that he presented the forty women for taking meal to keep themselves and children from starving. But WM. RAY Esq., of Yancy county, publishes a Card in which he not ouly repeats the charge, but says he himself paid the money to MERRIMON in order to get the poor women released! Can any man with a heart in his bosom vote for such a candidate?

Gen. R. M. HENRY has written a letter in which he states that Judge MERRIMON told him that he (Merrimon) resigned his Judgeship in 1867, at the instance of Geo. W. SWEPSON, who wanted MERRIMON to attend to his business; and that SWEPSON agreed to pay MERRIMON three thousand dollars per annum; MERRIMON to be allowed the privilige of practising in Wake and the Mountain circuit.

Mr GREELEY has said some things which are of special interest to the Democratic party at this time. Last fall, in Trumbull county, Connecticut, he used these words:

"If the Democratic party were called upon to decide between Grant and myself, I know that their regard for what they must call principles would induce nine-tenths of them to vote against me. Why? I am a decided enemy of that party even in its most respectable aspects."

Judge MERRIMON, the Democratic candidate for Governor, lives in one of the most handsome residences in one of the most fashionable streets in Raleigh. It is charged, and has not been denied, that it was purchased by GEO. W. SWEPSON; with money which properly belonged to the people of the State and given by him to MERRIMON.

All who have heard the Democratic Speakers in this canvass have noticed that they have attempted to prove their charges by reading from a book. That book is a partisan report, gotten up by a Democratic Committee and published at the expense of the State. Tax payers! you have to pay for this campaign document.

Judge MERRIMON is an enterprizing lawyer, but by the time he goes through with the suit he threatens against Senator POOL he will find that he has made less than he did when he prosecuted the forty women in Yancy county. He will find no one to step in and pay his fees and the costs.

We oppose the Democratic Party of North Carolina because it stole the "School Fund" levied and collected by order of the Republican Legislature and because it refused to make proper appropriations for carrying on the schools, thus robbing the poor children of the State of their education.

HORACE GREELEY has been nominated for the Presidency by the men whom he has held up to the gaze of mankind as moral culprits. There is not another such an instance in history of a man triumphing over such a host of political and personal enemies and bringing them to his feet as suppliants of favor.

Personally Col. CARTER, the "anything to beat GRANT party" candidate for Congress, is a very clever gentleman; intellectually he is a man of ability, and as a lawyer he stands at the head of his profession; but politically he is like the back-woodsman's hoss—he is "mighty onsartain." Don't vote for him.

A New York correspondent writes us saying'

Horace Greeley's friends won't allow him to sleep alone for fear he will "open his mouth and put his foot into it." But he insists on writing about fifty letters a day, and they cant stop him. He is bound to write one too many. He will be badly beaten.

No true friend of North Carolina can vote for CARTER because in all his speeches he bewailed the just punishment inflicted upon the convicted Ku Klux assassins, who had so injured the name and fame of the State by their hellish "dance of blood."

The Raleigh Era says the people are very anxious to know how much Judge Merrimon got as Counsel for the great Railroad Ring. They want the items,—how much money, how many notes, how many houses and lots, how many diamonds?

Tax-payers, remember that it cost the State seventy thousand Dollars more to carry on the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, the Insane Asylum and the Penitentiary under Democratic rule than it did when the Republicans controlled them.

Who first urged the voting of the rail road bonds? Democrats. Who received the issue of the bonds? Democrats. Who squandered them? Democrats. Think of this, tax-payers, and let the responsibility rest where it belongs.

Vote the Republican ticket because it represents the party of Liberty, of Progress and Prosperity.

☞ The Democratic politicians are becoming nervous. They are getting active, agitated, excited. Their actions just now remind one of a baker with his hands in the dough and a flea in his breeches. It is a perplexing predicament, to be sure, but we rather enjoy the exhibition.

☞ Because of serious indisposition, rendering him unfit for any active business, either mental or physical, Mr. CHAMBERLAIN has been unable to take any active part in the Senatorial canvass. His friends very much regret this as they had hoped to hear his clarion voice in defense of the cause of Truth and Right.

Gov. CALDWELL arrested SWEPSON, the State robber and swindler, Judge MERRIMON secured his release on bail and Attorney General SHIPP got him off from all prosecution. And yet the Dem ocrats prate about their honesty!

The masses of the people, including men of all parties, in Hyde and and Tyrrell counties won't vote for CARTER because of his position on the question of taxing them to improve his large possessions. Selfish CARTER!

"J. L. Chamberlain, the Republican candidate for the Senate said, "It contained more lies in less space than any paper in North Carolina." Economist.

That was before the Economist was printed. Now——!!!

Col. CARTER having been on all sides of all questions since 1860, has no claims for support upon those who value political sincerity and honesty. Inconsistent CARTER!

Judging from the past we should say that General GRANT's enemies are taking the best course to ensure his election for another term.—Horace Greeley.

A purely selfish interest attaches the lewd, ruffianly, criminal and dangerous classes to the Democratic party.—Horace Greeley.

We sustain the Republican Party because it insists upon the enforcement of the laws and sustains the Constitution as the supreme law of the land.

No poor man can vote for CARTER because he is not the poor man's friend.

Correspondence.

A Card from Mr. Godfrey.

July 20th, 1872.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

My attention has been called to a communication in the Economist written by R. K. Speed which charges me with being a "principal actor" in the shooting of Thaddeus Cox and wife during the late war. I hereby denounce the charge as false, as the certificates of the gentlemen who were present at the time, which are published below, will fully show. I leave it for the people to say whether Dr. Speed or the gentlemen who were present at the time, know best. Mr. Editor, you will please publish this Card and oblige,

F. M. GODFREY.

This certifies that F. M. Godfrey was not present on the morning that Thaddeus Cox, wife and child were killed, and he had nothing to do with it whatsoever.

Signed THOMAS PAILEN.
Witness, JNO. A. HOLLOWELL.
Nixonton, July 19th, 1872.

I, W. J. Munden do certify that F. M. Godfrey was not at the shooting of Thaddeus Cox, as I do know.

W. J. MUNDEN.
July 17th 1872.

I take pleasure in stating that F. M. Godfrey was not present and had nothing to do with the shootiag of Thaddeus Cox and wife during the late war.

T. C. FLETCHER.
July 16th, 1872.

From Washington County.

Plymouth N. C., July 19th, 1872.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

We have it very hot and dry. Thermometer 92,in the shade yesterday. Our crops are suffering for rain. The corn crop bids fair to be the best we have had in many years if we have a good season in a few days. The cotton is an inferior one on the whole, nothing like as good as last year. The yield must be greatly reduced from last year, judging from present appearances. This is the opinion of our best farmers. No excitement on the streets in regard to politics.

Mr. Cobb acquited himself to the entire satisfaction of his friends on the 15th inst. They are well satisfied with his effort on the occasion and will be up and doing until the first of August; when we will prove by our votes the good opinion we have of the gentleman regardless of Ku Klux denunciation or misrepresentation. DRAW.

Why Douglass Opposes Greeley.

In a leading article in this weeks New National Era Mr Fredrick Douglass speks of his personal regard for Horace Greeley, and then proceeds to explain why he cannot aid and encourage him in his eager pursuit of the Presidency.

He says: "He has united his fortune with a party based upon personal grievances, and not upon broad grounds of national good. Personal disappointments, personal envy, personal resentmeuts, personal ambitions have united in personal opposition to Grant and in personal favor of Horace Greeley. Now we are utterly opposed to this sort of personal politics. A man who abandons a party because his party has not the same sence of his personal merits that he has himself, and who joins another, hoping for better luck with the new than with the old, may be courageous as well as cunning, but it is impossible to commend such an one for political wisdom or virtue. He acts upon the principle that what is good for him must be good for the country, and make himself greater than the nation, and affirms that a part is worth more than the whole. He puts himself first, and country last. He may not always do this consciously, but, heather intentionally or not, the thing is done; and the whole Cincinati movement has its foundation, its starting point and mainspring, in this sortof personal politics. They accuse General Grant of personal government, while every department of it is as independent to day of the Executive as under any Administration since Washington."

William Dean, chairman of the Democratic State Committee of Delaware, publishes a card announcing his resignation of that position, on account of the nomination of Greeley, and says that he is ready to help form a straightout Democratic ticket.

Judge Merrimon's nomination by the Democratic party is an endorsement of his conduct as Swepson's bosom friend and adviser in the bond matter.

Dissatisfied Democrats.

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser does not believe that the Democratic leaders can ever rally their full strength at the polls for Greeley. It anticipates that in every State there will be found plenty of honest Democrats who will refuse to support the Baltimore ticket under any circumstances. And so it looks forward confidently, saying: "On the one side are all the elements that stimulate earnest work and presage victory. Upon the other is the uncertainty, inconsistancy and lack of zeal which ruin every cause and make defeat the enlmination of disgrace and dishonor."

Jo. Turner gives up the election in this State. He says "as we have to live ans other four years under these damned negroes and theives, what is it to us whether Greeley is elected or not?"

Forget my record, says Horace Greeley. Forget our record, says the Democratic party. Thus the two—each ashamed of the other, calling loudly upon the rocks and hills to bury out of sight that alone by which the people can judge them—join hands to obtain control of the Government.

It is asserted that William N. Saunders, the colored man who has declined to serve as an elector in Maryland, was discharged from the service during the war, and that his life otherwise will not bear close scrutiny. Naturally such men as he flee to Greeley, "reformers."

Knoxville, Tenn., July 13.—After three days of preparation the Greeley ratification meeting to-night has turned out a huge fizzle. There were not over 500 persons present. The music, fireworks and bonfires failed to gather a crowd. There was no enthusiasm, and no one who could be calldd a Liberal Republican attended. The Democrats were decidedly discouraged, and the Republicans are only the more united by the failure of their opponents.

Gov. Caldwell had not been in office five days before he made requisition on eight Governors of States for the rendition of Swepson and Littlefield, who were charged with a conspiracy to defraud the State and with embezzlemint of its revenues. Finding no avenue of escape, Swepson, sooner than be arrested and brought back as a felon, returned to the State, and was on the oath of Gov. Caldwell, arrested on a warrant issued by by Chief Justice Pearson.

Judge Merrimon and other leading Democrats appeared as Swepson's counsel and got him released on bail, to appear and answer the indictments against him in Buncombe Superior Court.

Before that court assembled W. M. Shipp and J. B. Batchelor, (who constituted two-thirds of the Democratic Fraud Commission) secured Swepson's release from all prosecutions, on their being paid a big fee! Era.

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

We call attention to the following new advertisements in this issue.
Bankrupt Notice.
Fruit Trees.
Turnip Seed.
Rosedale Academy.
Court Notice.

Local and Personal.

☞ After another week we'll resume our Story Department on our first page.

☞ Vote the whole ticket from Governer down to the lowest County officers.

☞ Republicans! are you all registered? See that it is done before election day.

☞ The weather has been very fine for Cotton. The prospect for a good crop has materially improved.

☞ Judge POOL and others will speak at South Mills on Monday next and at Old Trappe on Tuesday.

☞ Mrs. Dr. BUTT has sent us a curiosity in the cucumber line. In shape and color it looks exactly like a snake.

☞ Hon. JOHN POOL will positively speak at Old Trappe on Tuesday next, July 30th at 12 o'clock, and at Elizabeth City on Wednesday, July 31st.

☞ We call attention to the advertisement of the Rose Dale Academy. It is the determination of Prof. BAGLEY to make it a first class School.

☞ The only editorial reference we have to make to this weeks "eruptions" of our cotemporary is; Carbuncles must open, mud volcanoes can't help bursting, and it is the nature of frogs to spawn!

☞ A correspondent wants to know whether Judge MERRIMON has brought that suit against Senator POOL yet? No, he has dropped it like a hot potato! He hasn't said "suit" since the appearance of the Senator's letter.

☞ Look out for Democratic "roor backs" on the eve of the election. Our enemies are unscrupulous. They are desperate. Be prepared for their electioneering lies. Let no one be mislead by them.

☞ Those of our patrons who do not file their papers will do well, after carefully reading this issue, to hand it to a neighbor. Let the truth be scattered far and wide. All the honest masses want are the facts, and they will vote the Republican ticket.

☞ There will be a grand Republican Mass Meeting at Elizabeth City on Wednesday next July 31st which will be addressed by Hon. JOHN POOL and other distinguished speakers. It will be held on Academy Green. There will be a free dinner furnished for all. Speaking to begin at 11 o'clock in the morning. Everybody is invited to attend. Come one! Come all!!

☞ Maj. YEATES asserted in his speech that ANDREW JOHNSON was a Republican and charged his wicked and unconstitutional acts upon the Republican party. The Major either knew better or like the Rip Van Winkles, has not posted himself in national politics. No man fought the Republicans more bitterly than ANDREW JOHNSON, and but for the action of the Democratic and now "Liberal Republican" Senators he would have been convicted of high crimes and misdemeanors.

☞ Every Republican should so arrange his business as to be able to devote election day to the great cause in which we all feel such deep interest. The peace and increased prosperity of the State depends upon the success of the Republican ticket. Let every Republican go himself, and let him see that each one of his neighbors who can be induced to vote our ticket goes too. Prepare to give one day to your country. If our full party strength is voted there can be no doubt as to the result.

☞ What havoc that fearful disease "Office on the brain" is apt to make with other-wise excellent men. We have instances in our mind's eye as we write There is Colonel DAVID M. CARTER. A fine lawyer and a man of character. His impulses were loyal and Republican. But he wanted a Judgeship. He failed. It soured him, and he fell. Alas! what a fall. And then there is another most estimable man—Maj. JESSE J. YEATES. With a large heart and irreproachable name, he would to day be an outspoken Radical had he been honored with a long coveted seat on the Bench. That he would have graced the position there is no question. But he hadn't patience to wait, and he too went over to the other side. They've gone! Good bye!! In the language of a cotemporary they are "melancholly monuments of the instability of human virtue when confronted by temptation."

☞ Maj. YATES went out of his way in his speech on Saturday to make an uncalled for attack on Rev. SOLOMON POOL, President of the University. We would not condescend to notice it were it not that there were a few persons who might be mislead by the Major's statement. The facts are that under the regime of the old Faculty the number of students had dwindled down to 21. During President POOLS' management the number varied from 25 to 50. But for the Ku Klux outrages about Chapel Hill, the impoverished condition of the people after the war, the animosity toward the College authorities by a majority of the Democrats in the State, and the slanders circulated in the Sentinel, the number would have averaged much larger. As for pay we learn that Mr. POOL has never yet received a cent for his services, nor is his salry going on now. Of the $10,000 appropriation the five Professors being dependant on their salary for support, got $1500,00 each, and the balance was expended in repairing the College Building.

☞ A correspondent inquires: "Is it true that Senator SKINNER voted for GUILFORD CHRISTMAS, a negro, for the position of Assistant Doorkeeper of the Senate over a wounded and crippled Confederate soldier?" On referring to the Senate Journal, page 8, we find the charge is true. Mr. SKINNER did thus vote. Alas, facts are stubborn things. A man's public record must stand against him.

☞ "A Democratic Tax payer" is exceedingly anxious to know whether Senator SKINNER voted for the bill to levy a tax to pay the interest on the entire State debt. The Senate Journal for the last session has been withheld, for Democratic partisan reasons, until after the election! But we are told by Members of the Legislature that he did so vote. We are informed that he don't deny it. Had it passed, an additional burthen of nearly Two and a half Millions would have been loaded upon the people. No wonder our Democratic tax-paying friend is anxious to know the truth.

☞ Republicans! Watch the Democratic Registrars. We learn that there are instances where they are making sure work for their party, by just transcribing all Conservative names to the new books, assuming they desire to register, and are at the same time omitting all Republican names unles the parties call and demand registration. All such distinctions are clearly indictable in the United States Courts, and we call on our friends in each township throughout the State, to prepare themselves with proof to to prosecute any and all violations of the Federal laws touching our civil and political rights.

☞ The Senatorial candidates are vigorously pushing their canvass. They met their regular appointment at this place on Saturday. The discussion was opened by Capt. C. W. GRANDY Jr., the Republican candidate in a speech of an hour and a half. He dealt heavy and well directed blows at the malfeasances and corruptions of the Democratic party and showed conclusively that the only security for the people and guaranty for progress and prosperity was to place our noble old State in harmony with the National Government. As for the frauds of the Legislature of '68 and '69 he did not hesitate to denounce the Republicans implicated, but he proved that so far as the bad acts were concerned the Republicans were so divided that had not the Democrats combined with the corrupt Republicans not a single one of the bills could have been passed; that while sums amounting from a few hundred to a few thousand dollars were given to Republicans, the larger sums of MILLIONS were pocketed by Democrats; that, making party capital out of the acts of the Legislature of '68 and '69, the Democrats went before the people promising reform and reduced taxation, but no sooner did they get in power than they increased the burthens of taxation from 35½ cts. up to 52 cts., raised the salaries of Democratic pets, squandered the people's money in impeachment trials and revolutionary Convention acts, broke down the beneficent public School system and retarded, nay checked the prosperity of the State by discouraging the influx of immigration, capital and enterprize. They not only falsified their pledges but absolutely left us in a worse condition than they found us. Such a party had no claims to popular confidence or support. They

"Spoke the word of promise to the ear
And broke it to the hope."

He was followed by Maj. JESSE J. YEATES, the Democratic candidate. The Major is a pleasant speaker, but to break the force of his competitors sturdy blows he felt it necessary to indulge in anecdote and humor—appealing to the ear rather than the reason of his hearers. He has the reputation of being a good lawyer, and he made as good a plea in defense of the "lost cause" as is possible. It was a lawyer's effort to make the worse appear the better reason. It was clearly evident that he was arguing against his judgement and conscience, but then the professional advocate must do the best he can for his client—must earn his fee. And besides it is charged that the Major has always "hankered after office!" that as neither HOLDEN nor CALDWELL would give him "a Judgeship," he has been too weak to resist the tempting offer of a Senatorship! His statements were extravagant, and to prove them he read from a dirty partizan campaign sheet called Blasting Powder, published by a man whose reputation for truth and probity is so blasted that honest men don't believe a word he says. Such proof! It establishes nothing. But then such stuff, interspersed with anecdotes, helped to fill up the Major's time. As argument was out of the question what better could the hard pushed candidate do? While we enjoyed his jokes we sympathized with him when he put on the agony and tried to be pathetic in defense of what he felt was so clearly indefensible. As "in duty bound"—the Baltimore Convention having passed the edict—he delivered a panegyric on HORACE GREELEY. He rejoiced to believe that the time had come when hands could be clasped across the bloody chasm made by the war. Is the Major so blind as not to see the course his party is taking is calculated to perpetuate that open, dividing ditch? The "chasm" has been deep dark, portentous and bloody. It is neither wisdom nor statesmanship to rest satisfied with a mere clasping of hands—a simple bridging over. It must be filled up, and to do this effectually, so that neither line or seam to mark it is left, is the work and mission of the National Republican Party. Having been opened by Slavery, Injustice and Wrong, it is closing and cementing it by Liberty, Justice and Right. And the true friends of the South will fall in line to aid in this grand and noble work. It is the only road to peace. These times demand more than gushing tenderness of expression and sounding phrases about the restoration of good feeling. There must be action corresponding to the words or it is a sham and a mockery. The "chasm" must be filled up and obliterated, and may it be opened never more!

A PITIFUL CONDITION.—It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no spacific disease; they suffer no positive pain; but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure. In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food every organ is starved, every function interrupted.

Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two to sink afterward into a more pitible condition than ever (as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to,) but radically and permanently.

How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question, founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is easily given Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time by administering temporary remedies, but wake the system up by recuperating the fountain-head of physica strength and energy, the great organ upon which al the other organs depend for their nurture and support.

By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence. Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, fit to be the materia of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve and brain, flows through the channels of circulation, instead of the watery pabulum with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished.

AGRICULTURAL, HORTICULTURAL AND DOMESTIC MATTERS.

Good in Hungarian Grass.

The Ploughman thinks highly of Hungarian grass in general, but especially at a time like the present, when, in consequence of a hard Winter, followed by a spring drouth, "it is impossible to form a very correct judgement of the probable yield of hay till rather late in the season." It may be sown after the hurry of planting is over, say the middle of June, or even later; its growth is rapid; if helped with a little manure at the start, it will yield from one to two tuns of good hay per acre, and, if pastures are short, it offers one of the best green forage plants-less exhaustive, it is thought, than fodder corn, and equally or probably more nutritive and milk producing as food for cows. It stands drouth equal to an Egyptian mummy. If everything else about it dries up, the growth of Hungarian grass may be arrested, but it clings to life, and the first rain revives it almost as if nothing had happened. A dry, warm soil of a fair quality, or what would be called by farmers good corn land, is just what it needs. Fourteen quarts of seed to the acre is the quantity commonly recommended, add, if fresh and good, that is enough. Those who wish to leave some margin for possible drawbacks may make it half a bushel.

THE SOILING SYSTEM.—In consideration of the fact that pastures have suffered in common with all grass lands, while to stock of cattle cannot easily be reduced on account of the extremely low prices. The Massachusetts Ploughman suggests that it is worth while for the farmer to consider whether he had not better adopt the system of partial soiling, or perhaps better of buying extra feeding stuffs in the shape of linseed or cotton seed meal and feeding a reasonable quantity once or twice a day throughout the Summer. Many farmers put their cows in the barn nights, and it is a very easy matter to feed out say a quart of oil meal morning and night. The advantage of this would be to increase the quantity of milk and to carry the stock along with less injury to the pastures, the natural consequence of over stocking, while the value of the manure would be considerably greater. Furthermore, the freer use of artificial manures on pastures and the use of feeding stuffs for stock while at grass will rapidly improve the farm.

Killing Weeds in Lawns.

The American Rural Home says: "Dock, Canada thistles, horseradish, and other strong-rooted varieties, are frequent tenants of the grass plot. They obstruct the lawn mower, and, when shaven as closely as the grass, spring quickly into prominence again. Perhaps the best method of killing them out is to use a narrow-bladed spade, or a strong knife, which will cut the root deep enough under the surface, when it can be pulled up, and in most cases will not grow again. This, however, is not the case with strong growing and extremely vital plants, like horseradish, thistles and dock. These require more frequent treatment, and perhaps something additional to the cutting. If a little salt, or what is much better, kerosene, can be applied to the cut suface of the roots, it generally kills them completely.

Orange-colored Spectacles.

In a note to The Journal of Chemistry, Dr. Stearns, Surgeon at the U. S. Asylum for Disabled Soldiers, at Milwaukee, Wis., referring to the photographic use of orange-colored glass to exclude the actinic rays of light, expresses his surprise that no optician had had the genius to see that orange is the proper color for spectacles, instead of green or blue, for persons of weak eyes. Dr. Stearns states the interesting fact that a room in the hospital with which he is lighted through orange-colored windows, and is used, with very satisfactory results, for patients who have certain diseases of the eyes requiring the exclusion of the actinic rays of light. A similar suggestion to this was made some time ago by a writer in one of the London papers.

An Asiatic Narcotic.

A popular narcotic used by the inhabitants of Central Asia, known as busha, is prepared by the Kirghises by rubbing millet to a pulp with water, and after diluting this with still more water, and occasionally with mare's milk, the mixture is poured into a large stone jar, tightly corked, and buried in the soil. It is left for ten days, and after being taken up the fluid is transferred to glass bottles, which, after being corked, are left standing a few days, when they are ready for sale. A large amount of carbonic acid is formed in these bottles, which escapes when they are uncorked. The taste is tart and spirituous, and is offensive before one is accustomed to it, owing to the presence of fusil oils. This drink, so popular but intoxicating, is forbidden to the army by the military authorities.

A Good Farmer.

One of our best and most accurate farmers informs us that when a boy, as soon as he had learned book-keeping at school, his father employed him to keep the farm accounts—the cost of labor, the amount of work expended on each field, time of performing operations, plowing, sowing, cultivating and harvesting, amount of crops, prices at which sales were made, &c. He soon became much interested in farm operations, and thoroughly acquainted with all the details of work, in a more complete manner than he ever could have been in any other way, and was early placed on the track of farming regularly and systematically. Let other farmers follow this example with their sons, and we shall have less of random, hop-skip husbandry, and more of order and success.

Increase of Heart Disease.

Dr. Quain of England, in his Humleian lectures at the College of Physicians on Diseases of the Walls of the Heart, states that during the last 20 years the total of deaths of males, at all ages, from heart diseases, has increased in number from 5,746 in 1851 to 12,428 in 1871. The percentage of deaths from heart diseases for 1,000 of population living was .755 between the years 1851 and 1855; it had risen to 1.085 from 1866 to 1870. This increase has taken place wholly in connection with the working years of active social life. There is no change in the percentage of deaths from this cause in males under 25 years if age.

PRESERVING POSTS.—A correspondent of the Western Rural says he discovered many years ago that fence posts 'even of popular, basswood or quaking ash" may be "made to last longer than iron in the ground" by being merely coated with pain made of boiled linseed oil thickened with pulverized charcoal. He mentions basswood posts which thus treated were found to be perfectly sound after seven years' service, and he is confident that "there is not a man who will live long enough to see them rotten."

A Drover who sells his cattle by live weight always gives them as much water as they can drink before driving them on the scales. That is his way of watering stock,

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.

OF VALUABLE

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS,

FOR SALE BY

GEORGE D. POOL.

Real Estate Agent,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalists and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where: and in easy and cheap transportation of products to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the sociability of the people, in great fertility, and durability of soil, no section can equal it.

A railroad will soon be built to Weldon, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States. This, together with our great fishing, farming and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A Steam Saw and Grist Mill in the town of Nixonton 8 miles from E. City. This Mill has a fine wharf and store attached on deep navigable water, the engine is 40 horse power, and all in good order. It is one of the finest locations to be found any where for custom work, and for getting good saw logs easily and cheaply. Price $4,000 cash.

Adjoining the mill property is 40 acres of fine land on the River, with three houses, all for $1200. Near the same is a good two story dwelling and 13 acres of land for $2,000, and a good one story dwelling, with one acre of land for $300.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotauk county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one third cash, balance in one and two years.

Also one other tract in Pasquotank county, containing 116 acres, within one mile of the town with fine buildings, mostly cleared and in cultivation. Price $25 per acre, one half cash, balance in 12 months.

A valuable site for a hotel at Nag's Head, 40 miles from Elizabeth City, and 50 miles from Edenton. This is situated immediately on the Ocean, and is a famous Summer resort for invalids, and those seeking health, comfort, and amusements during the summer months. It is in direct communication by steamboats and railroad with all parts of North Carolina, Virginia, and the North; and is equal in natural advantages to Newport, or Cape May. Visitors flock to this famous summer resort by hundreds and thousands, and a large amount of money can be made by a hotel. A charter has been obtained from the Legislature of N. C., for a joint stock company to build the hotel. There is now an old hotel on the spot, which could be cheaply repaired and bought for $3.000. This hotel, though imperfectly kept, cleared the proprietor last season, over $3.000. For a man or a company, having some capital, this is one of the finest chances to make money at hotel keeping to be found anywhere. The early attention of the public is invited to this property.

A fine steam saw and grist mill at Hertford, the county seat of Perquimans County, N. C., 18 miles from Elizabeth City. This mill has a fifty horse power engine, now in good running, two pairs of best French burr stones, and two upright saws. The house has a brick basement, and the building is large and in good order. There is one and a half acres of land belonging to this property, and a good two story dwelling, and other out-houses. The section of country adjacent abounds in the finest yellow pine, cypress, ash, poplar, and other valuable timber. This property originally cost $15.000, and is now offered at forced sale for the low price of $3.500, $7.00, cash, and the balance in six equal instalments, six months apart each with interest.

A fine farm and fishery in same county. The farm contains 400 acres of the finest land, lies immediately on Albemarle Sound where the water is 12 miles wide, and 18 to 20 feet deep, has got buildings, and fine neighborhood. The fishery is on the farm and goes with it. It has a new seine 2,500 yards long, and all the necessary boats, buildings, &c., (which cost over $15,000 two years ago.) The fishery alone, of a good season, will make from 5 to $10,000 profit to the owner. This property is offered at forced sale for the low price of $20,000, $7,000 cash, balance on easy times.

A store at South Mills, in Camden county, 20 miles from E. City, and 20 miles from Norfolk, lying on the canal where steamers pass daily. A fine chance for merchandize. Store is large with dwelling above containing six rooms, is in first rate order, has office, kitchen, dairy, and other necessary outhouses. Goods to the amt. of $50,000 per annum can be sold here, and at large profits. A splended stand for a country retail store. Price $2,500—one third cash, balance in one and two years.

A valuable tract of land in Camden county, at South Mills, on the Dismal Swamp Canal, lying on the canal for two miles, containing over 900 acres of land—two-thirds cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation, with good buildings, &c.; balance in valuable timber. Price $12,000, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, interest from January, 1871. This is a valuable farm for corn, wheat, and vegetables, and being midway between Elizabeth City and Norfolk, and located where steamers pass by the door daily, is a desirable and cheap property.

A fine farm of 600 acres within six miles of E. City, one mile from navigable water, and the best cotton farm in the State. It is also well adapted to raising corn and wheat. This farm has a splended two-story dwelling upon it, large barn, 40 by 60 feet, a large number of outhouses, by splended trees and shrubbery, is in a strong Union neighborhood, and altogether the most desirable place in the county. A little over one-half of this land is cleared, and the balance is covered with the finest yellow pine, poplar, ash and other timber. Price $30 per acre—one-third cash, balance in one and two years with interest. Title reserved.

Sixteen houses and lots in Elizabeth City, with good dwellings, out-houses, &c. Prices and terms reasonable.

A valuable farm in Perquimans county, N. C. near navigable water. Has a fine dwelling-house with ten rooms, in splended order, with splended barns and stables—all in first rate order. The farm is very productive in corn, oats, wheat, cotton and clover. It is one of the finest farms in the State and is now in good cultivation, contains 585 acres of land, about three-fourths cleared and under cultivation. Price $10,000, one-third cash January 1, next balance in two equal annual instalments with interest at the rate of six per cent.

A farm of 370 acres 8 miles from town by water, and 12 miles by land, is offered for sale for $10,000 in easy payments. This tract of land lies immediately on the River which is 4 miles wide and washes the farm its whole length on one side, and a branch of the River one mile wide, binds it on one end. The land is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, peas, &c., lies high and dry, and is susceptible of the highest improvement. Fronting and looking over, as it does, two large sheets of navigable water, where steamers and sailing vessels are constantly passing, carrying freight and passengers to all parts of the country, its location and surroundings, are of the most fascinating and desirable character. There is a fishery on it ready for working a seine 2,500 yards long, and which commands a portion of both streams of water, and can be made immensely profitable. The price charged is low, and the purchase a very desirable one. The buildings consist of a good two-story dwelling and out-houses.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smokehouses, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

A Farm of 200 acres within one mile of Elizabeth City, with good two story dwelling, large barn and stables, and all necessary outhouses, orchard of fine fruit trees, and a large number of ornamental trees and shrubbery around dwelling. This farm is on one of the most public roads in the County—is in a high state of cultivation—has fine and durable fences, &c. Altogether, it is the richest land and most desirable location, anywhere in the neighborhood of the town. Price $6000—one-half cash, balance in easy payments.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects. They are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the System in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.
